About YCAP

YCAP was launched by a group of young Canadian arbitration practitioners in 2004. The mission of YCAP is as follows:

to promote interest in and understanding of international arbitration, particularly in Canada, among young lawyers working in private practice and with corporations and government, as well as among other interested young professionals;

to provide professional development opportunities and a forum for the exchange of ideas for young lawyers and other young professionals with an interest in international arbitration; and to provide professional networking opportunities for young lawyers and other young professionals with an interest in international arbitration.

Registration for the YCAP Symposium

In order to register for the YCAP Symposium, please complete and return the attached Registration Form. If you register for the Web Cast, further information regarding log in details will be provided to you directly once the details have been finalized. We encourage you to register early, as numbers may be limited.

If you would like to join YCAP, please complete and return the attached Membership Form, along with the applicable fee. Please note that while the Spring Symposium is being presented free of charge, usually YCAP events are free only to members, and open to non-members for a fee.

Questions or Further Information

If you have any questions or require any further information regarding the YCAP Symposium, please contact Stephanie Cohen (by e-mail to cohenarbitration@gmail.com) or Mark Luz (by e-mail to mark.luz@international.gc.ca).

With the compliments of the YCAP Board of Directors
