Interim Arbitrators in Times of Crisis: Insights on the New ADRIC Rules

This session will explore the role of Urgent Interim Measures and the use of an Interim Arbitrator under the newly revised ADRIC rules. As unexpected global disruptions, such as both military and tariff wars, increasingly give rise to a wide range of emergencies, Urgent Interim Measures have become more important than ever in helping businesses deal with emergencies promptly and efficiently. The panelists will discuss the nature and role of Urgent Interim Measures, how the need for Urgent Interim Measures may shape dispute resolution strategy, and share examples of how Urgent Interim Measures have been successfully used to mitigate disruptions in today's volatile business environment.
